Official Certification

This is to certify that this volume is a complete and correct record of the proceedings of the Ohio Annual Conference (1936 session), and that it was adopted by the Conference on September 15, 1936, as its official record.

Toledo, Ohio, September 15, 1936. ASA JAMES KESTLE, Secretary.

LAY CONFERENCE

RESOLUTIONS

September 12, 1936.

Inasmuch as we laymen have been clamoring for years to have a legal right to a voice and an influence in an Annual Conference in determining matters of special interest to laymen; and,

Inasmuch as that right is now ours to act in Joint Sessions of the Annual Conference on matters directly affecting, and of vital interest to, the laymen of the church;

Therefore, be it resolved: -

1st. That we have as many Joint Sessions as may be necessary to take care of all important matters needing joint action.

2d. That we arrange for our Lay meetings at such hours as will not conflict or curtail Joint Sessions, and that these meetings be for discussion and information on matters that will be, or should be, brought up at Joint Sessions for final action.

3d. That we request the Annual Conference and its general committee on program to give the laymen the responsibility of one evening's program, and that we confine our formal speech-making to that evening.

4th. That we request equal representation with ministers on all standing committees, and that the reports of the most important of these committees be presented at Joint Sessions for final action.

5th. That we request the Annual Conference in its published Minutes to include a list of the lay delegates and reserve lay delegates (giving name, address, and church) who are now elected for the coming four years.

E. Dow Bancroft, F. L. Berger, (Miss) Clara B. Sherman, Committee.

Reports

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT, 1936

Presented by Robert O. McClure

Mr. Chairman, Brethren, and Friends:

The Annual Conference stands alone and unique among all the other phases of our work in the polity of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Since the action of the General Conference of 1932 making possible the united sessions of ministers and laymen, the Annual Conference has much added significance. Before this legal consummation, when the majority of those present were ministers and ministers' wives, the report of the District Superintendents was very largely a report of our work to ourselves. Now the stockholders are present. In former times the report could well be made in generalities and in glowing spiritual terms, but now we have passed into a day of realism.

I wish, therefore, to present a few foundational facts: The present membership of the churches of the Ohio Annual Conference is 248,274. The present enrollment in the church schools of the Conference is 213,921. We have 20,249 teachers and officers in our church schools. The valuation of our properties is $21,569,082. The total paid for ministerial support last year, 1935, was $1,088,176.

Together these figures make a staggering sum.

In 1927 we had in the Ohio Conference a total enrollment in all departments in our church schools of 231,962. In 1935, eight years later, we had 213,921.

This means a loss in eight years of 18,041 or a loss of 2,255 per year.

In 1927 we had a total membership in our churches of 230,440. In 1935 we had 248,272—a gain in eight years of 17,834 or a gain of 2,229 per year. However, the gain in 1935 over 1934 in church membership was only 1,089. In other words, almost 600 ministers, 20,000 church-school teachers, and 250,000 church members, working with a property investment of twenty million for twelve months were able to make a net gain of only 1,089 new members to the church. It must be kept in mind in interpreting these figures, that in addition to the merger of the Ohio and West Ohio Conferences we received in 1933 a number of churches from the Central German Conference, which is now dissolved. But someone is saying, "We cannot measure the success of our work in statistics." No one is more aware of that than is the writer—but no sincere minister can but be profoundly disturbed over the trend in our statistics. Again, we are hearing on every side the criticism that we are thinking too much of our organization—that we place too much emphasis upon numbers and tangible results, and consider too little the quiet leavening influence of the gospel. If the figures are correct and we are actually losing every year more than two thousand from our church-school enrollment, while at the same time, we are sorry to admit it, no large numbers are being added to our membership through conversion and confession of faith, it seems to me that our situation is little less than alarming.

Church Attendance

Another matter that gives great concern is that of church attendance. An Executive Secretary of a sister denomination, working in the state of Ohio, said to me recently "that only about twenty-eight per cent of their membership attended the worship services with any regularity." For years we have been saying that not more than one half of our people take seriously the matter of regular church attendance. The pastor must carefully avoid all conflicts in his parish before announcing a special service at the church. Nor can this matter of meager church attendance be traced altogether to poor preaching. Most of those present can recall when merely the announcement of one of our Bishops to speak in any of our churches was sufficient to draw an overflow crowd. Now all the churches of the city must combine and at least one thousand personal letters be sent out lest we be embarassed by a small attendance. What I am trying to suggest is that something has been lost from our worship services—the sense of reverence, the feeling of need for divine help and the expectancy of meeting God is entirely submerged.

Our Laymen

We are grateful for and inspired by the new interest being manifest by the laymen of the Conference. Under the able leadership of your Conference President, Dr. Lester Ivins, local, district, and Conference brotherhoods are being formed, which promises much for the success of the Kingdom. If the time ever comes when loyalty and sacrifice of the women of the church are matched by the men we feel confident that a new day will dawn and many of our so-called problems in the local church will vanish. The ministers of the Conference, let me assure you laymen, deeply appreciate your splendid co-operation. The devotion of many of you to the church during these lean years particularly, has been a great inspiration to ministerial leadership. If the plan of unification with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, which was favorably considered by our own General Conference this year, is finally consummated, the interests of Methodism will become stupendous. This union would give to Methodism a total membership of almost eight million. A great would give to Methodism a total membership of almost eight million. A great thrill of pride should come to every Methodist layman and minister in the realization that we are a part of such a vital force in the remaking of this world into the kingdom of our God.

It seems to me that if we laymen and ministers of this great Conference are to meet the challenge of this materialistic day, there are certain basic convictions which must find expression in our faith and action. First, we need to give expression to a profound faith in a personal righteous and good God. I wish we might become steeped in Old Testament literature so as to regain something of the mighty passion, courage, and conviction of the men who live through those pages. The leadership then seems to have been impelled by a sublime faith in the goodness of God, in the essential dignity of man, and the final victory of good over evil. Someone has said that the business of Christianity was to save man from his insignificance. The Holy Book makes abundance that the great chasm which antly clear that we are the sons of God and that despite the great chasm which was formed when man wilfully and deliberately used his powers against the divine purpose there is the ultimate hope that God will find a people through whose lives and relationships His own character may be expressed.

National Campaign

The presidential campaign which is now on is bringing to our attention some of the fundamental characteristics of American life. In the opinion of many we are at the parting of the ways. The road ahead must lead to the establishments of the control of the ways. lishing of a purer, finer, and more Christian democracy or we shall soon be in the pitfalls of a system of government which will destroy the finest in personality and perhaps deter the realization of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man among the masses of the people for centuries to come. We all know that the most fundamental necessity of our modern day is Christian character. The production of Christial people for centuries to come. acter. The production of Christlike personalities is always the chief business of the Christian church. We cannot afford to place the churches of the Ohio Annual Conference at the disposal of any political party or economic system. The attempt on the part of some to identify the church with any theory of indicitive and activities about the discourse and the characteristics and the characteristics are the characteristics. vidualism or collectivism should be discouraged. It has been pointed out that present political and economic crises have crowded into the background one of the most significant movements of modern times, viz., the growing attempt to crush Christianity. Today the governments of countries which contain over a third of all Christians are waging a ruthless war against the Christian church. The church must proclaim a message which protects the rights and interests of all classes of people. Unless it sets forth a way of living which transcends that which is offered by any other group, government, or institution we are sure, and perhaps rightfully so, to decrease in power and influence.

Our Hospitals and Educational Institutions

We have within our borders four hospitals and two colleges. All these institutions are of a very high order. More than twenty thousand patients were admitted to the four hospitals during the year 1935. The staffs at Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern are of exceptional quality and have rendered sacrificial service.

Because of the trend in national and state legislation and also because of the growing demand of public opinion for the Government to assume the entire responsibility for the physical and intellectual well-being of its citizens, the question is frequently raised as to why the church should be so heavily involved in institutional work. It must be said, that all our philanthropic and educational institutions were the outgrowth of a holy desire to bring the full meaning of the message of Christ to the people. Originally, these institutions were different. They have rendered the state and nation immeasurable service because of the character of their graduates. As was said by a member of this Cabinet last year, "We believe there is still a field for service and there is still a sustaining constituency for our church institutions, but on one condition, and that is that they render a distinctively Christian service. A sustaining constituency will not always be found in the church for institutions which are merely duplicates of so-called secular institutions." We pledge to the management of our hospitals and the presidents of our colleges our heartiest co-operation in their endeavor to make these institutions reflect the mind of Christ in this very complex and confusing day.

It is not the purpose of this report to review the splendid work being done by our Goodwill Industries in three of our larger industrial centers nor to comment in detail upon the vital programs of religious education, Wesley Foundation work, and our excellent youth movement, which is the most encouraging sign of the times. We express the hope that all our churches will, in the future, make more tangible their interest in all these programs of service.

World Service

The total income for the quadrennium ending May 31, 1932, was $26,963,845.93. The income for the quadrennium just closed, ending May 31, 1936, was $12,986,222.36, a decrease for the quadrennium of $13,977,623.57, or 51.84 per cent. This means that the income for the quadrennium just closing was only 48.16 per cent of the income for the previous four years, or, in other words, the church has in four years reduced by more than one half its effort for world evangalization. The decrease in World Service giving this last year ending May 31, 1936, as compared with the year ending May 31, 1935, was $188,070.26, or 5.83 per cent. The per capita giving to World Service in the first World Service year, 1925, was $2 16. In 1936 the giving was 82 cents per member.

Alarmed over the above figures, the General Conference early in its last session raised a committee whose duty was to suggest ways and means of stirring the church to a better recognition of its responsibility toward the World Service interests. After careful study this committee recommends the launching throughout the church of The-World-Is-My-Parish Movement. This movement is to give proof of its reality by the enlistment within the year of 500,000 units or contributions of $1 per month for the support of the general World Service benevolences as a first stage in the prosecution of a Million-Unit Fellowship. The Cabinet believes that the first step in the realization of this not too ambitious program is the recovery in the lives of all our pastors of the missionary tious program is the recovery in the lives of all our pastors of the missionary passion. The laymen are largely responsible for the raising of the local expense passion. The laymen are largely responsible for the raising of the local expense budgets, but upon the pastors must rest chiefly the leadership of our World Service interests. We wish to assure our Resident Bishop and the World Service Commission that this Conference stands ready to co-operate with them in the fullest possible measure in all the plans and programs which they shall put before us in the next few months.

A Basis for Our Faith

The confusions of our time seem to make necessary a fresh statement of what we believe Christianity to be. Many think it to be only a way of salvation based upon the sacrificial death of Jesus upon a cross. Others, if they include a practical way of life, restrict it to personal conduct. Still others deny the mystical aspects of Christianity and make it solely a form of group life. And so the confusion grows. We believe that Christianity is both a theory and a practice. As a theory it is a daring faith regarding the nature of reality. This faith has been traditionally stated as the belief that Jesus is the revelation or the incarnation of God. The magnitude of that faith has been heightened in modern times by the immensity and the complexity of the universe revealed to the incarnation of God. The magnitude of that faith has been heightened in modern times by the immensity and the complexity of the universe revealed to us by science. Our concept of God must be enlarged to include the power responsible for the creation of a universe thought of in terms of interstellar spaces and measured in light years. Our idea of God is further enhanced by our knowledge of the fixed nature of the laws that govern the world. Hence, when we say that we believe that God is like Christ, we elevate that life and teachings of Jesus to the stature of laws and the powers that control the universe. What a tremendous statement, but that is precisely what our faith in Christianity is! If God is like Jesus, then we can no more resist the ethical principles exemplified in the life of Jesus than we can change the laws that govern the planets in their courses. Believing this, we dare to challenge the world. This faith becomes the foundation upon which the whole program of Christ in the world must be built. Christ in the world must be built.

The other aspect of Christianity as a practice consistent with its faith follows naturally. Christianity is a way of life for both the individual and society, based upon the life and the teachings of Jesus, and this way of life is binding and authoritative for us if we believe that Jesus is the key to ultimate reality. This way of life, let it be said to avoid confusion, must not be identified with any particular program or system. Often we are challenged to show where Jesus taught any program of life or of society that we might preach as a Christian system. That request shows a misunderstanding of the very genius of the Christian religion. Had Jesus espoused a particular order, then Christianity would have died with the passing of that particular system. Instead, Christianity by its very nature, becomes a way of life not for a particular era only, but for all the ages. It is timeless and eternal, for it is rooted in the nature of the eternal God. It consists of attitudes, sentiments, emotions, which are universally applicable and ideals or principles of conduct which can be specifically used in any program of individual life or any organization of society. Christianity, therefore, must never be tied to any status quo. Our efforts to Christianize people must be guided by this large concept of the nature of Christianity. We must win people to the acceptance of the whole Christ, His attitudes, His teachings, and His faith as revealed in His total life on earth, for the whole of our life both individual and social. Let there be no misunderstanding here. Many profess to believe that all we need to do is to convert individuals to the acceptance of Christ as Saviour and these converted persons, in turn, will bring about the redemption of society. Others, who approach this question from the social point of view, insist that there is no carry-over from subjective experience to objective action. Observation would indicate that both are wrong in emphasis. It is a well-known fact that people can be Christian in some particulars and utterly pagan in others. On the other hand, some of our most advanced pioneers in the field of the social application of Christianity are persons who were first known as exponents of personal evangelism. Let us have done with this false division of Christianity into a personal and a social gospel and recognize that we must have the whole of Christ for the whole of life. Personal experience needs the exercise of social action to save it from decay—social action is futile without the dynamic of personal experience.

Interpreting Christianity

It is universally recognized that the church has held a central place in the development of our American life. Unfortunately, there is a conviction, perhaps true on the part of laymen, that the church does not always represent true Christianity. From one viewpoint, it is perfectly amazing the amount of support which organized Christianity receives each year. But the day is now upon us when too many are giving financial support ONLY and are withholding their intellectual and moral support. Thousands think of the church as being concerned only with form, with prohibitions, with bans on the enjoyment of life. They regard its main business as the preparation of one for death. The average man thinks of the church as having no connection with his daily life. The church seems to be satisfied if the laymen are present for the worship on Sunday and give generously of their money for the church's cost. To the average man the church meets everyday, routine problems by ignoring them—denying their existence. I am sure that the thinking laymen believe that the real business of the church is to prepare one for life, not death; that it should appeal to the intellect as well as the emotions. We are quite sure that more people today believe in the value and effectiveness of Christian principles than ever before. The difficulty is that they do not realize that these principles in which they have complete confidence are Christian principles. Many men who are enthusiastically loyal to Rotary, Kiwanis, and other civic clubs—who point with pride to the principles of these organizations—service to others, charity to the needy, justice and truth among all men—are amazed to discover that they are Christian principles. The same men who commend an address at Rotary calling for co-operative, brotherly living, refuse to attend their church because they believe nothing of practical interest will be said. We insist that the business of the church is to interpret Christianity so as to relate these eternal principles of right and wrong to the d

A Way of Life

Christ said: "I am come that ye might have life and have it more abundantly." It is Christ's life that men need to follow. In a real, vital, understandable, scientific way, Christ's life is man's only hope, and certainly the business of the church is to make this known to every man. Speaking broadly, it is only the application of the life of Christ that makes possible civilization. Christianity is not only an attitude of mind, it is a solution to human problems. One must obey natural laws or cease to exist. In a very definite sense Christian principles are in this category. If they are not obeyed, civilization ceases to exist. They are the basis of human living and therefore they are inescapable—an answer to all our problems. It needs to be said in all our pulpits that Christianity is the only way to life. This starving, confused world of today needs not to hear of bans and prohibitions, but positive declarations which lead to life. The problem of war will not be solved by an outcry against an increase in armaments. The problem of underpaid workmen and starving children cannot be met by an outcry against capitalism. When the tubercular person consults his physician, the doctor wastes no time railing against the symptoms of the disease. Instead he goes to the root of the trouble, knowing that when the lung is repaired and given a new life, the symptoms will disappear of themselves. Impending war, underpaid workmen, salacious motion pictures are symptoms. The seat of the difficulty must be attacked, repairs made and a new life given. And what is the seat of trouble? Is it men themselves, their own thinking, their own minds? No system—economic, moral, physical—is better than the men who compose it. The evils that are in capitalism would appear in Socialism, or Communism, or in any other system, if the minds and hearts of men are not changed. Christian men, as well as planned economies, are the need of today. Our business as an organized church is to teach Christianity, not Socialism, or Capitalism, or Communism, or any other kind of "ism." This is not evading the issue of present-day problems. On the contrary, it is the only method of solving them. Slums will not be cleared until the sort of thinking that develops slums is cleared. Excess profits, slave driving of laborers, injustice for Negroes in Southern courts, graft

BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT

The Board of Education recommends the continuance of the plan for an education hour for the united presentation of the varied interests of Christian education in the Ohio Conference We request that the education hour be made the order of the day for Thursday morning at 10 A. M. for the 1937 Conference Session.

We approve the continuance of Education Sunday for the presentation in all of our churches of the interests of our Ohio Colleges and Wesley Foundations, and of Rally Day in the interest of the Conference program of religious education in local churches.

Religious Education in the Local Church

We rejoice in the progress made during the last year in maintaining an effective promotion of religious education in local churches. We recommend that the present budget of $4,000 be approved for the new Conference year. We respectfully request that our efficient Director, L. S. Norris, be reappointed to this work.

The Ohio Conference Program of Religious Education deserves a more general and generous support. To this end we urge the observance of Rally Day in all of our churches, and the prompt remittance of funds to the Board of Education, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, Ill. All remittances must be plainly marked "Rally Day."

We present for adoption the following suggested program for the new Conference year:

The continuation of the organization and program of the Ohio Conference Youth Council. We pledge our loyalty and co-operation in the progressive, forward-looking program of the Board of Education under the leadership of Dr. Jesse Murrell, Secretary of the Department of Epworth League and Young People's Work.

2. The continuation of the Advisory Council covering the four phases of educational work, viz.: Children's Work, Young People's Work, Adult Work, and Leadership Training.

3 The setting up of a series of City and Rural Institutes, making use of the Church-school Publications caravan.

4. A District Superintendents' Seminar, and the continuation of one- or two-day Pastors' Seminars.

5. The promotion of leadership training along three lines: (a) Community or Methodist Second Series Schools; (b) A First Series School in every church; (c) A Summer Laboratory School in connection with one of our colleges, augmenting this program by the use of accredited pastors and leaders.

6. The continuation of the observational centers.

7. Co-operation in the Million Unit World Service Promotional Program, by setting up schools of missions in strategic centers.

8. The continuation of the Hocking Valley Vacation Church-School Program.

9. Continuation of such help to local churches as can be given. 10. Co-operation with the Ohio Council of Religious Education.

Colleges

We recommend that the practice of naming college visitors be discontinued. We respectfully request the election of the following persons as trustees of our colleges:

See Lists of University of College Trustees.

Wesley Foundations

The thousands of Methodist youth enrolled in our tax-supported and independent universities challenge us to continue with vigor the work of the Wesley carrying on fruitful programs of religious education, worship, and training for Christian service. Much more could be accomplished if additional funds were available. In accord with the ruling of the World Service Commission we urge generous designation of World Service funds for the work. We also recommend that special gifts to our Wesley Foundation units, which supplement the ratio of World Service funds, be granted credit as Annual Conference benevolences.

We nominate the following persons as Wesley Foundation Trustees:

See "Trustees." Foundations. The Foundation units within the bounds of our Conference are

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING, 1936

Another profitable session of the Summer School of Ministerial Training was held at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, June 15 to 25, 1936.

The special lecturers for the first week were: Dr. William Warren Sweet, Department of Church History, University of Chicago, and Dr. John Newton Davies, Department of New Testament Greek Exegesis, Drew University. The lectures given and seminars conducted by these men were highly appreciated.

Dr. Allan MacRossie, Executive Secretary of the Commission on Courses of Study, visited the school during the first week, and brought his usual uplift and inspiration. The addresses of our own Bishop H. Lester Smith, his interest in the school, and the support which he gives it, are most valuable factors in its in the school, and the support which he gives it, are most valuable factors in its success.

During the second week Dr. Rollin H. Walker, of Ohio Wesleyan University, gave a series of seven lectures on the Psalms. Dr. Walker was at his best and in his own inimitable way made these ancient writings live again.

The enrollment of the school, including students, faculty, and lecturers, was considerably in excess of that of last year. There was a substantial increase in attendance upon the Graduate School. Each year the enrollment of Supply Pastors increases, while that of members of Conference in the course of study is gradually decreasing. In an increasing measure the work of the school is resolving itself into two elements: To provide a more adequate training for Acceepted Supply Pastors, and, to provide a source of instruction and inspiration for members of the Conferences who attend the Graduate School. Each of these elements is an important factor in the Summer School and each is worthy of support

The salaries received by Supply Pastors in almost every instance are inadequate. Since their attendance at the Summer School is required, it would be no more than fair to make provision for the payment of their entire expense in connection with their attendance on the Summer School. Those who attend the Graduate School are, for the greater part, young men who receive meager salaries, and who should receive some part of their expense as an encouragement for them to attend the school.

We greatly appreciate the action of the Executive Committee of the Area Council in recommending the appropriation of $1,500 for the support of the school, provided that the amount received from the churches makes that amount possible. We urge the churches in the Area to pay in full their apportionments to the Area Fund, so that both the Area Office and the Summer School of Ministerial Training may have the financial support needed to carry on their work effectively.

The financial statement accompanying this report indicates the necessity of borrowing $250 from the bank in order to have sufficient funds to pay the expense of the school. The account in the closed bank, from which we have received dividends from time to time, will soon be paid out. The amount we shall receive from the Commission on Courses of Study is very uncertain. The Area Fund should provide an amount sufficient for the entire expense of the school.

We cannot close this report without again expressing our very deep appreciation-

Of the assistance given to the school, both financially and in many other

Motions

- 1. Move that we reapprove the twenty-five cents per member apportionment as heretofore and that the apportionment be fixed as ordered by the 1932 Conference; namely, "That the askings be apportioned to the districts on the basis of membership to be allocated to the charges by a committee appointed by the District Superintendents, of which he shall be chairman."
- 2. Move that the special Ohio Conference Flower Hospital Committee be continued as heretofore composed; namely, "the District Superintendent, a pastor and payman from each of the three supporting districts, which are Toledo, Defiance, and Lima.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

We note with satisfaction that for the past year the Methodist Book Concern showed a net produce of $74,000, and we approve the policy of the Book Committee to retain the net produce to restore in part the reserves depleted by the depression. There was an increase in sales of the Methodist Book Concern of $283,000, due primarily to the sale of the new hymnal. We call attention to the fact that the normal income of the Methodist Book Concern is through its sales of church-school materials and supplies and regular book publications. We, therefore, exhort our pastors and church schools everywhere to use the supplies of the Methodist Book Concern, supplies which contain the authorized lessons released by the Board of Education. We feel that this exhortation is necessary in order that the Methodist Book Concern may return to an annual net produce sufficient to enable it to distribute a net produce to the Annual Conference in accordance with its Disciplinary and co-operative aims.

Concerning the club rates for the Advocate, we approve the report of the special Advocate Committee appointed by the Bishops of the patronizing territory and which reads as follows:

tory and which reads as follows:

Resolutions

Whereas, The Book Committee has authorized a special $1 club plan for such territory as might elect, and

Whereas, This $1 club plan has been in operation in the Central and Northwestern Editions for two years, and

Whereas, We feel that the experiment in the territory in which this method has already been adopted has not been continued long enough to prove its permanent worth;

Whereas, A $1 Advocate plan was tried by the Western from 1912 to 1916 and its discontinuance was compelled because of lack of support;

Whereas, There is a five per cent increase in labor cost and a ten per cent in the cost of paper, increasing the annual cost of the Advocate family $7,000;

Therefore, 1. Be it resolved, that we suggest to the editor and publishers of the Cincinnati Edition a unique enrichment of its local pages in giving factual and international news material, and such other material as the editor may elect;

2. That we continue the subscription plan of the Cincinnati Edition at the $2 rate for the year to come;

Be it resolved further, our goal should be an Advocate superior in quality rather than lower in price.

Further, we pledge ourselves as members of the committee to support and enlist the co-operation and interest of every pastor in our Conference to carry out a constructive program for reaching the proposed subscription goals in each district and charge.

STANLEY W. WIANT, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

Evangelism, in its widest meaning, is our main task. Believing that Methexperience of God-consciousness and "the taking the hands of men and putting that the foregoing is still our purpose and our program, in keeping with the Aldersgate Street experience of John Wesley, the anniversary of which we celebrate two years hence. If the hands of men are in the control of the hands of God, they will be doing God's will in every relationship of life, in stewardship, in social action, and in spiritual graces. in social action, and in spiritual graces.

We are chagrined when we face the fact of few conversions and of few accessions to church membership. The increase last year in our Conference, exclusive of those coming in through the church school, was 1.2 per church. We deplore that there are closed church buildings on Sundays evenings and at the time of midweek prayers. We deplore that the family altar is observed by so few, and vital personal piety is so little shown either by profession or practice.

We wish to express our appreciation of the fine, inspiring messages being brought to us by Dr. Halford Luccock and by Bishop H. Lester Smith in the devotional addresses. We hope that our church will receive a full measure of value from the National Preaching Mission during the next few menths, and value from the National Preaching Mission during the next few months, and from the Conferences and Councils to be promoted in our Area under the leader-ship of Bishop Smith and the District Superintendents. We wish to covenant with them that we will make every effort to meet their challenge.

We wish to commend the leaflet, "The Upper Room," and similar devotionals for personal and family daily devotions.

We wish to commend the work of the Epworth League Institutes and Youth Councils and pray for guidance to properly safeguard and direct the spiritual inspiration and enthusiasm the youths have received therein. We declare that if any feel that uncouth ignorance is a part of evangelism, they should be made to know that our Lord desires and deserves the highest culture and the finest qualifications to do His work and to win men to Him.

We hope for a renewed evangelistic enthusiasm and passion for souls in the hearts of the pastors and officials of our churches. To this end, we recommend that each pastor, with the Quarterly Conference Committee on Evangelism, launch and carry through a carefully planned and directed visitation for spiritual values throughout the community. The completion of this task means that each soul has been challenged to receive Christ Jesus as Saviour and dominating influence in his life. The special days should be observed and special meetings held with the evangelistic appeals given and opportunities made for registration of decisions. And, we recommend that in our sacramental services we call attention of the unconverted to the opportunity offered in such services to make their confession of faith and committal of life.

Furthermore, we recommend that each pastor familiarize himself with the aims, program, and objectives of the United Adult Movement launched last August at Lake Geneva, Wis., by the Adult Committee of the International Council of Religious Education. The thirty-three Methodist delegates at the Conference, in formal gatherings, gave the movement unqualified endorsement as most hopeful development of adult interest in this generation. The program of the movement stresses evangelism and social action, the Christian use of leisure time and other vital questions in nine areas of adult life. Every pastor and lay leader will find the published report of the Lake Geneva Conference a storehouse of useful and helpful aids to his adult program in the local church. Praising God for our marvelous blessings, advantages, and fields of service, we pray for guidance and grace to do the will of God, for we believe that thereby many will be saved, society led into the more abundant life in Christ Jesus our Lord, and the spirit of brotherhood advanced.

GOOD WILL INDUSTRIES

In the last calendar year sixty-six Good Will Industries reporting to the Bureau of Good Will Industries, Department of Cities, Board of Home Missions, show total current income of $3,357,625.28, which sum is larger than the entire amount received from World Service by the Board of Home Missions, for its work throughout the United States and its territories. Here is a new arm of the church, just making its sixteenth annual report, and revealing that almost three and a half millions of dollars were raised for work among the poor, the halt, the maimed and blind, of our great cities.

A striking fact to be noted from this report is that this large sum has come largely through self-earnings, these Good Will Industries of America averaging over eighty per cent self-support.

Many inquiring minds ask the question, "What is the church doing in this period of depression and unemployment? Is it simply making resolutions? We can answer, "No, it is doing something concretely for the underprivileged and jobless people." Last year in America 34,214 different persons were employed in The Good Will Industries; and 6,474,372 hours of employment provided. And they were paid in Opportunity Wages $1,638,639.36.

In addition to this fine service of providing jobs to the handicapped and the needy, The Good Will Industries rendered another valuable service in supplying a great host of poor people with clothing, shoes, and furniture, at a nominal cost.

Almost a million bags of clothing were collected, nearly one million and a half bags of paper, and three quarter million pieces of furniture, all of which was reconditioned in the shops of The Good Will Industries, and then turned into homes have of these pagestics.

into homes bare of these necessities.

Not only did The Good Will Induustries of America render this significant piece of industrial relief, not by a dole, but by wages; but also it did a work of evangelization, religious education, and social recreation among America's masses, spending $226,986.32 in maintaining churches, and missions, and church schools, kindergartens, day nurseries, and settlements, largely in the downtown sections of our cities, and fresh-air farms in the country.

The Good Will Industries of Cincinnati is part of this great movement.

This last year's budget was $83,091.58, and its assets one quarter of a million dollars. It maintained a church among the poor, with a membership of 440. It conducted a Children's Settlement, with an enrollment of over a thousand children, and maintained a Fresh-Air Farm, which gave privileges of vacation to almost 300 different children and youth.

Other cities in our Conference maintaining Good Will Industries are: Dayton, where the work is growing rapidly; Zanesville; and Toledo, which has just moved into a fine new plant, with great promise for the future.

RICHARD E. SCULLY, Executive Secretary.

HOME FOR THE AGED

All parts of the Ohio Conference are represented in the membership of the Methodist Home for the Aged at College Hill, Cincinnati. It is a large family and a remarkable group of aged people. Their gratitude makes one feel pleased to serve them.

Fifteen new members from eight different Conference Districts have been added to the family since last Conference.

During the year $3,713.63 has been received from the churches and church schools of the Conference. This is less than last year, but we are grateful for every dollar received. We commend this Home to the kindly and generous consideration of our Methodist people and urge them to remember it in every possible way.

A much-needed and expensive improvement is now being realized in the installation of an entirely new, modern, steam-heating system. Thanks to the gifts of some good friends, this was made possible.

We recommend that the pulpits of the Ohio Conference be open to the representatives of this Home at the convenience of the local pastors.

We recommend that the following persons be elected as members of the Corporation of this Home from the Ohio Conference for the ensuing year: Edward W. Greeno, Thomas H. Campbell, E. C. Harley, William E. Stark, Mrs. J. Burton Doan, Thomas H. Craig, Sr., Don W. Fitton, John M. Dolbey, Thomas T. Crawford, and J. Harwood Garrison.

HOSPITALS AND HOME COMPOSITE REPORT

The following excerpts are taken from reports made to the Ohio Conference Board of Hospitals by the respective superintendents of the Hospitals and Homes.

A. Bethesda Hospital.

Forty per cent of the work done for children and 33 per cent of all service rendered is given free, amounting to over $85,000 a year. This does not include the service our doctors render free, nor any income on an investment of $1,750,-000, nor is the $45,000 depreciation ever charged to patients. If everything were figured, the unremunerated service would easily amount to $250,000 a year.

B. Christ Hospital.

During the past year 6,201 patients were treated in the hospital, and in addition there were 2,152 visits to the out-patient department. A total of 68,255 days of treatment was rendered to in-patients; 3,326 operations were performed, and there were 602 births during the year.

There are nine deaconesses and one associate deaconess serving in various capacities in the hospital.

C. Flower Hospital.

Flower Hospital has not created a dollar of indebtedness in the last six years on operating the hospital, and stands in a most favored position for the refinancing of her old past-due indebtedness. While still in need of gifts, yet she is enjoying a vastly better patronage and income than any time since 1930.

White Cross Hospital.

White Cross Hospital has now operated one year successfully under the new financial program worked out with the Bond Holders Committee in the Ohio Annual Conference one year ago. Interest charges of $10,706.70 was paid in December. Bond retirement and interest charges of $17,502.95 was paid in June. Since that time, $3,500 in bonds have been purchased to apply on the December payment. The hospital has sent to the St. Louis Union Trust Company since Conference one year ago, $30,169.65 for interest payment and bond retirement. The churches of the Conference contributed toward this payment $4,381. 99, plus the undetermined amount forwarded to the seat of the Conference; $16,500 in bonds have been retired, costing the White Cross Hospital Association $8,740.

Methodist Home for Aged.

All parts of the Ohio Conference are represented in the membership of the Methodist Home for the Aged at College Hill, Cincinnati.

Fifteen new members from eight different Conference Districts have been added to the family since last Conference.

Worthington Children's Home.

Our Methodist Children's Home at Worthington has had another most successful year. There has been in residence in the Home 161 children, with an average residence of 91. This being a placement agency there is a constant movement of children. These children are kept in the Home temporarily, or until their homes are rehabilitated; and if that is impossible, they are placed in free Foster Home where many of them are adopted. This last year 87 children were in foster homes. So during the year 248 children were under the supervision and care of the Home. The days care in the Home totaled 33,144. Or this is equivalent to giving care to one child for 96 years.

These children come from broken homes and from poverty. Only 7½ per cent of the total cost of their care comes from their parents. The family situations from which these children come are as follows: 60 children, mother dead; 27 children, father dead; 10 children, orphans; 10 children, improper homes; 31 children, parents separated; 11 children, mothers unmarried; 12 children, father or mother in hospital.

McKELVEY DEACONESS HOME 1935-1936

It is time to take inventory of the activities at the Deaconess Home. It is hard to figure profit and loss when you are dealing with character building, and relief of human suffering. But this task falls to us who are instruments through which our missionary women touch humanity, and it is their right that we should give an account of all they have invested through this work, "For we are laborers together with God."

The past year at the Deaconess Home has been an unusual one in that there have been several changes. Some time ago the Conference Executive Board of The Woman's Home Missionary Society requested that we rent all unoccupied rooms in the Home.

We are indebted to missionary women and friends for some very muchneeded and appreciated improvements.

The supplies for the year came from six different districts valued at $2,823.80, Columbus District led the list with a valuation of $2,318.75.

Calls for help continued to come to the Home through the year. Relief was given 380 families in the following way: 3,178 garments, 49 layettes, 208 pairs of shoes, 96 pairs of hose. There were 224 baskets of food sent out, about 100 of these went at Christmas time, 44 dolls and other toys accompanied them; 317 comforts, 4 blankets, 9 rugs, and 9 sheets found their way into these homes; 2 gas bills were paid, 150 quarts of milk were furnished by a church-school class for one family where there were undernourished children; $647.47 was given for relief and used in this work.

A call was made into homes where there was want, upon grief-stricken people, upon the sick, and to interest intelligent ones in church attendance, 1,683 times. We received at the Home 340 callers in interest of the work and for relief. There were 437 meetings attended, 60 addressed, 101 church-school lessons were taught, 240 letters written, 4 children secured for cradle roll.

Another year's work has gone on record, and as we look back we wish that we might have done more for "Kingdom building."

SARAH D. CHURCH, Superintendent.

PEACE COMMISSION

Your commission believes that this report might begin with the opening paragraphs of the official pronouncement of the Methodist Episcopal Church on World Peace adopted by the General Conference of 1936. They are as follows:

"The patriotism of the Methodist Episcopual Church has never been challenged. Neither our motive nor our loyalty must be impunged when we insist on the fulfillment of pledges made to the dead, and assert our Christian ideals to the living."

"In these terms, as in the General Conference of 1924, we set ourselves to create the will to peace, the conditions for peace, and the organization for peace. 'The agencies of our church shall not be used in preparation for war: they shall be used in preparation for peace.'" peace.' "

"The threats of war in the world today are so grave that we feel called upon to restate our convictions on this subject. Therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, and with the hope that his Spirit may be evident in these words, we make the following declarations: . ."

Then follow clear, pointed, and definite statements relative to freedom of conscience, military training in civilian educational institutions, the reduction of armaments, the creation of a department of peace by the Federal Government, and the entrance of the United States into the World Court.

Your Peace Commssion believes that in this General Conference pronouncement the church has gone as far as it can possibly go in its support of world peace. We believe that every pastor of this great Conference should provide for a distribution of this pronouncement throughout his membership. The fact that 100 copies can be purchased from The Methodist Book Concern for 50 cents makes it possible for all our churches to the thoroughly in for 50 cents makes it possible for all our churches to be thoroughly informed as to our official position as a church on this important question. Despite the fact that war is no longer an inevitable institution in the modern world, and despite the fact that the major nations in the world, including world, and despite the fact that the major nations in the world, including our own, are signatories to a pact which outlaws war as an instrument of national policy, we are confronted today with a world feverishly preparing for war. In this program of mad preparation for war, strange to say, our nation is playing a leading rôle. It seems almost unbelievable that approximately eighteen years following the close of the war that was known as a war to end war the Christian church in every land is facing an emergency in its struggle for good will, peace, and brotherhood. The position of our Methodism is undeniably clear, sound, and Christian in the following statement taken from the pronouncement. We quote again for the reason that we believe the exact language of the statement should have a place in this report: believe the exact language of the statement should have a place in this report:

"War as we know it is utterly destructive. It is the greatest social sin of modern times; a denial of the ideals of Christ; a violation of human personality, and a threat to civilization. Therefore, we declare that the Methodist Episcopal Church as an institution does not endorse, support, or purpose to participate in war."

Year after year your commission has brought an unqualified support to conscientious objectors to war in our educational institutions. We shall continue to do this, believing that the same exemption from military service as has long been granted to members of the Society of Friends and similar religious organizations should also be granted the young people of our Methodist homes and churches. The establishment of a new R.O.T.C. unit on the campus of Ohio University, at Athens, brought strong protests to the Board of Trustees from your Peace Commission and many of our ministers throughout the Conference. We commend the efforts of Wilbur H. Fowler, A. G. Jenkins, and all who co-operated with them in their untiring efforts to prevent the establishment of this military unit.

Your Commission desires to offer for consideration the following recommendations:

1. That the Secretary of the Conference send a written request asking that the Nye Committee be permitted to continue its work.

2. A request that the President call all American ships from Spanish waters, especially warships.

3. We recommend and urge that all our pastors discuss the matter of military drill, of war and peace, with the youth of their churches.

4. That each church be authorized to take an offering during the year for the Peace Commission and its work. This is one of the few commissions left without a working budget.

5. We believe it is most desirable that a subcommittee of the Commission with a special responsibility for the conscientious objector issue at the Ohio State University be continued. We recommend that I. E. Miller, Robert L. Tucker, and Donald Timerman constitute this committee.

6. That the following constitute the Peace Commission of the Ohio Conference for the ensuing year. (See Commissions.)

JOSEPH B. ROSEMURGY, Secretary.

REFORMS

The prevalence of drinking of intoxicating liquors is alarming. We deplore the fact that our state is engaged as a proprietor in the hellish business. The ever-present places of distribution, the use of women as bartenders and the methods of advertising intoxicants and narcotics, in newspapers, on billboards, and especially over the radio are most repulsive to us. We record anew our opposition to the entire traffic. We believe that the only way to control the traffic in intoxicants is prohibition.

We call upon the state to give us effective local option laws. We further call upon the state to make and enforce drastic laws dealing with drunken drivers. Wherever any chance for success exists, local option should be pushed by Christian people; we recognize local option as a step in the right direction. We assure Dr. Ernest H. Cherrington, executive head of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals our heartiest co-operation in making effective the objectives of the board. We pledge ourselves anew to the Anti-Saloon League and other agencies working for the extermination of the liquor traffic. We strongly recommend the preaching and practicing of total abstinence among our people both old and young alike. We call upon all people called Methodists to refrain from association in a social way with those whose attitude is that "it is smart to drink."

We urge pledge signing in all our churches. We recommend that education for total abstinence should proceed in local churches, church schools, Epworth Leagues, institutes and other organizations of the church. We urge that where it has been discontinued, that the teaching of the effects of alcohol and narcotics on the human system be resumed in the public schools in accordance with the statute now in force.

We place ourselves on record as in favor of prohibiting the sale of any other commodity where liquor is sold. We favor a law prohibiting the use of women as barmaids.

Since the General Conference of 1936 resolved that future sessions of that body should be held only in cities that could provide a sufficient number of hotels and restaurants where liquor is not dispensed. The General Conference also urged our people to patronize only those merchants who do not sell liquor. Conforming to the spirit of those resolutions, we earnestly request those who are responsible for the entertainment of the Bishop and his Cabinet, as far as practicable, to assign them to a hotel which does not sell intoxicants, and to see that Cabinet meetings are held in buildings where liquor is not sold.

We view with great alarm the increase of cigarette smoking, especially among women and the youth of our country.

We abhor the prevalence of gambling, be that in the form of pari-mutuels, bingo, dingo, bank nights, or church raffles. The mania for receiving something for nothing is growing with alarming proportions. Gambling houses become the rendezvous and breeding places of the underworld, and foster the most dangerous element in American life. We urge public officials to persistently enforce the anti-gambling laws.

Publicity given to hangings, executions, and even trials of murderers should be reduced to the minimum. We record our opposition to mob violence in every form. We believe in law and order. We reiterate that "the ends of justice are never attained, neither are the ideals of democracy strengthened by such methods."

We nominate to succeed themselves as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League the present members: I. E. Miller, O. L. Seward, J. Swank, C. M. Coulter, D. Timerman, C. E. Turley, S. W. Wiant, W. H. Fowler, C. E. Graham, J. C. Plummer.

RESOLUTIONS

The Ohio Annual Conference expresses its deep appreciation of the cordial welcome and thorough arrangements made for our convenience and comfort by T. W. Fessenden, pastor of this church, the local office staff, the District Superintendent, W. J. Dunham, and all the Toledo Methodist preachers and their churches.

We are grateful to the convention bureau of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce for many favors, to the police department for parking privileges, to the city of Toledo for special consideration in the use of the civic auditorium, the local postoffice for their courtesies, the Ashland Avenue Baptist Church for the use of their building as a meeting place for the Lay Association, and the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. for the use of their facilities.

We feel greatly indebted to the many local Methodist choirs who have made such a delightful contribution to our program.

We commend the Program Committee for providing us such timely and able messages as those brought by Dr. Halford Luccock, Bishop Titus Lowe, Bishop F. T. Keeney, Bishop J. W. Pickett, and Dr. Charles C. Selecman, and the beautiful drama presented Sunday evening by the Methodist Dramatic Club of La Grange, Ind.

We are happy to have had our genial and able Resident Bishop, H. Lester Smith, return to our area for another quadrennium and to have had him as our presiding officer during this session. We are grateful to him for his brotherly guidance of our Conference session and pledge him our utmost support in carrying out the program of our church during the next four years.

C. B. HARRISON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE OHIO CONFERENCE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

The most important single factor on the horizon of our churches in the present hour is the Million Unit Fellowship Movement. Our report this year confines itself, therefore, to this movement.

Our first emphasis is that the General Conference did not intend this movement to be primarily financial. It does ask that we raise more money for evident and urgent reasons. But basically the General Conference in its report emphasized two outstanding facts in the life of our church today: the loss of a deep and thoroughgoing spirituality, and second, closely tied up with the first, an imperative need for "the recovery of the militant concern which once saw its goal in the redemption of the world."

The church exists for just one purpose: to work with Christ for the bringing about of a Christian world. If we fail to attempt that task with aggressiveness and even deep self-sacrifice, how can we expect that the Lord of the church can bless us with any significant outflow of spiritual passion? Or another way of stating it might well be, can we hope that our churches will be deeply spiritual while a large part of their members possibly as high as two thirds of those while a large part of their members, possibly as high as two thirds of those members that are able to give, are not interested in, nor making any sacrifice to join in the world-evangelizing task for which the Lord established the church?

Manifestly the General Conference was right, and the time has come for a new, arresting, and compelling emphasis upon all our members who are able to give at all doing something for the total World Service ministry and mission of the church.

We would point out that this is all the more urgent today because of the threatened collapse of the world civilization of which ours is a part. We have seen every plan which statesmanship and human ingenuity can devise, such as fascism, communism, international control and manipulation of finances, tried. They have but divided the world into more bitterly warring camps. There is no hope left for civilization on any materialistic basis. If we are to be saved the spiritual forces, for which the church stands, must be brought to mastery in the world's life. This is the supreme responsibility and mission of the church.

The time has come when every church and every church member must realize that we cannot save our American Christian civilization unless at the same time we vitalize and save the entire world civilization with which we are knitted up.

It is in the light of all this that the General Conference launched the Million Unit Fellowship Movement within our church, calling for the vitalization of the spiritual life of our people and urging them to an utterly new and deeper dedication of themselves and their resources to this spiritual objective. "When we see Communists and Fascists in Spain and in other parts of Europe 'living dangerously,' ready to die for their arrando it is indeed time that Christian shareh see Communists and Fascists in Spain and in other parts of Europe 'living dangerously,' ready to die for their crusade, it is indeed time that Christian church members caught the crusading spirit of the Christ."

The Ohio Conference's share of the half million units of one dollar per month which it is proposed to raise this year is 27,761 units. With approximately a quarter of a million members in our Conference, it ought not to be impossible to find 27,000 people who can and will each agree to subscribe for one or more of these units, provided they be given the vision. If only one member in nine on the average should so subscribe the total would be raised. And, of course, there is the evident possibility that groups of members who cannot individually subscribe for a unit may unite to do so. Church-school classes and departments, Epworth Leagues, etc., might well do this; though the emphasis of the General Epworth Leagues, etc., might well do this; though the emphasis of the General Conference is upon the importance of securing individual personal subscribers, for the enrichment of their spiritual lives, and particularly enlisting in this unusual effort thousands of our members who have not responded to the former more routine appeals for missions.

Detailed Recommendations

Your World Service Council recommends the adoption by the Conference of the following:

1. That we accept the goal of 27,761 units to be subscribed by our churches this year, and set ourselves to raise them.

2. That we pledge to Bishop Smith and his Cabinet our whole-hearted cooperation in any and all steps they may devise for bringing this effort in our Conference to a successful issue.

3. Since the World Service Council, including the District Superintendents, is the body which should normally counsel with the Bishop and stand ready to aid him in promoting World Service throughout the Conference, we recommend that the Cabinet reorganize the membership of the Council with the folfrom each District; the Conference presidents of The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and The Woman's Home Missionary Society; the chairman of the Conference boards and commissions related to World Service interests; members of the general church boards and of the World Service Commission who are resident within the bounds of the Conference; the Conference Director of Religious Education, and five members at large, aiming to secure a representative and outstanding leadership from the Conference for this important body.

4. The organization by each District Superintendent of such sub-district divisions as will enable him to reach every church at some time during the fall or winter with a team which can help bring information and inspiration concerning the Million Unit Fellowship Movement to these churches.

5. That each pastor preach on the spiritual significance and financial objectives of the Million Unit Fellowship Movement in our church early this fall, not later than the general launching date for the movement, November 15.

6. An exchange of pulpits by pastors in the various districts later this fall or winter: each pastor bringing the strongest message of which he is capable according this movement to the church he is visiting.

concerning this movement to the church he is visiting.

7. That our pastors study carefully the suggestions on the accompanying sheet, talking same over fully with their local leaders, and carrying through as many of the suggestions as may be feasible, leading up to a special everymember canvass to be made for this cause after steady preparation of the church through the fall and early winter.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

At the meeting of the Social Service Commissions of the two Ohio Conferences in May, agreements were reached for state-wide co-operation of the Methodist forces in matters of social righteousness. Ohio Methodism is now able to act in unison in any service to be rendered all the state, and is one in seeking to further the social conscience and concepts of our people. We have reorganized our Commission in accordance with the wish of this Conference by the inclusion of twenty-five laymen in our membership.

We are persuaded that the best interests of Methodism are conserved when the Social Service Commissions of individual Conferences have complete autonomy. We know of no more hopeful sign on the social horizon, however, than the forward movement of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, involving the employment of Dr. Charles C. Webber as field secretary. We honor the Methodist Federation for Social Service for the colossal service in the providence of the colossal service in t it has rendered Christendom. We believe that people of all political persuasions should heartily sustain an organization which rejects the struggle for profit as an adequate basis for social living and which seeks to replace contemporary social disorders by means of the mind of Christ.

For the deep concern for the sacredness of life and for the social ideals of religion manifested in the sessions of this Conference and made vocal in the messages of our bishop and others, we devoutly thank God. The blind spots of the General Conference were pathetically evident in moments when a considerable minority proudly manifested its hatred of Protestantism by voting against freedom of discussion and when a considerable majority showed itself impervious to the enslavement of millions of our sisters doomed to enforce motherhood. Such persistent ethical blindness convinced us that Methodism can rise no higher than its concept of evangelism. We hold that our church should be committed to a new but thoroughgoing evangelism. We regard all attempts to divide the gospel into social and individual as subversive of the cause of Christ. We echo the admonition of our beloved bishop: "We need an evangelism for the whole man." Is there a Christian way of killing other men? Is racial discrimination consonant with the spirit of Lagua? killing other men? Is racial discrimination consonant with the spirit of Jesus? Is the exploitation of labor void of offense toward God and man? Let our evangelistic appeals make open answer to these! Let us make it clear that these are against everything that Jesus is for, and for everything that Jesus is against. We insist that calling men to the altar to accept Christ is never truly evangelistic unless it is understood to mean the sort of commitment which will henceforth save the church from the embarrassment it now suffers from the unfair practices and the inhuman spirit of many who today name the name of Christ. The ethical and the humane must be made explicit in the regular message of the church; all that is anti-social must be branded as anti-Christ.

The Ohio Annual Conference reiterates its faith in the possibility of a Christian social order. It further holds that social change must be made, not by resort to violence and hate, but in touching the conscience of the dominant groups so that they will place a considerate economic order far above personal privilege and power. Millions are denied the precious reality and nearness of God because of our perpetual failure in brotherliness. We look for new and more vital revelations of God once those who name the name of Christ are utterly reconciled to their unprivileged brethren. Only as in love we strive to do the will of God can we expect to meet God in all his holiness and Believing that our church ought to be big enough to minister to people of every political viewpoint, we declare our patriotism, our devotion to democracy, and our dedication to the Protestant principles of freedom of conscience, press, pulpit, classroom, and pew. It is our conviction that, while the patrioteer idolizes his country, the patriot improves it. Not regimented thinking, but constructive criticism is called for in our day. We call upon the governor and legislature of this state to provide adequate financial support for our institutions of learning and for the safeguarding everywhere of the public school in accordance with the historic American attitude of the separateness of church and state. We call our church to a deeper understanding of social situations and techniques, until it shall be evident to all of our members that the church is charged with pointing out and furthering the moral and spiritual principles which must control all of human life, and that the church can never be at ease in any Zion until it proclaims from the housetops that every institution and every system—political, social, economic, or ecclesiastical—must be measured by spiritual idealism and be made to stand before the judgment seat of Christ. judgment seat of Christ.

THE COMMISSION ON INTERDENOMINATIONAL RELATIONS ON CHOOSING THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNITING CONFERENCE

In order to provide for the membership of the Uniting Conference, called for by Article I under Procedure, the General Conference instructs the Bishops, as soon as practicable after the adoption of "The Plan of Union" by the three negotiating churches, to order an election of membership in the Uniting Conference on the following basis:

1. Each Annual Conference in the United States shall elect one ministerial delegate for each one hundred members, but for a fraction of two thirds or more of one hundred members shall be entitled to an additional delegate. Lay delegates in like numbers shall be elected by the Lay Conference, provided strictly, that each Annual Conference and each Lay Conference shall be entitled to at least one delegate. Annual Conferences and Lay Conferences may elect as many reserve delegates as they have delegates.

The ministerial and lay members of the Commission on Interdenominational Relations shall be ex-officio members of the Uniting Conference.

3. The Bishops shall have authority to elect a sufficient number of delegates-at-large to the Uniting Conference to complete the full number of four hundred delegates fixed by the Plan of Union as the Methodist Episcopal quota.

4. In carrying out the provision of Paragraph 3 as above given, the Bishops are requested to provide for an equitable representation in the Uniting Conference of our Conferences or missions in foreign lands—if possible from among such missionaries or nationals as may be in the United States on visitations or furloughs—this with a view to curtailing the expenses incident to holding the Uniting Conference, and also they shall have regard to the connectional agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church, including The Woman's Home Missionary Society and The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

5. The Bishops shall have authority to fill any vacancies that may occur in the membership of the Commission on Interdenominational Relations.

6. Upon the calling of the Uniting Conference, the Book Committee shall estimate the amount of approximate expense of said Conference and shall have authority to send to the Conferences and churches such apportionments as may appear necessary for meeting our quota of the financial obligations.

7. The Commission on Interdenominational Relations shall proceed immediately after the adoption of "The Plan of Union" by the three churches to act with similar commissions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, to carry out the provisions of Article II under Procedure for selecting the place for the meeting of the Uniting Conference, and to work in company with the other members of the Joint Commission in carrying out the requirements of Article V under Procedure, by appointing the six committees to make advance preparations for the work of the Uniting Conference.

For the Commission on Interdenominational Relations:

WILLIAM F. McDOWELL, Chairman; HARRY E. WOOLEVER, Secretary.

Adopted by the General Conference May 14, 1936.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

Being made aware of the great need of help to our fellow man in this fair land of ours and our insular possessions, we wish to register our appreciation of the fine service rendered by our church through its Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, working through the different departments; namely, church extension, city, and rural. The leaders, showing a fine loyalty, have not only carried on in the ordinary, but they have been early to meet special needs during floods, drought, financial failure, and foreclosure. The money given by the church has been safeguarded and properly directed to the highest good.

We wish to express our gratitude to those in charge by a pledge of our loyal support to them, and hold ourselves open to their challenge for a greater contribution of money to meet the needs in times of disaster, in leadership among the underprivileged, in Americanization groups, in evangelism, in schools, and on the frontiers. We are also ready to lend our aid in helping save the sanctuary in many places where property is jeopardized. To this end we express our fond hope that the full apportionments may be met. We recommend that all the churches which have negotiated loans from the revolving fund make every effort possible to remit payments, however small, each year back to the board so that other urgent needs may be met.

C. F. BOWMAN, Chairman.

THE LAKESIDE ASSOCIATION TO PATRONIZING CONFERENCES

Another Lakeside season has become history. Attendance has been the largest since 1931, with an increase of more than 8 per cent over last year. The management has been extremely gratified by the expressions of commendation on the program and the physical improvement evident to all.

mendation on the program and the physical improvement evident to all.

The spiritual emphasis has been kept foremost and there has never been a stronger array of preachers, religious leaders, and teachers than during the 1936 season. This was evidenced by the splendid attendance at the Lakeside Bible Conference, Schools of Missions, Sunday services, adult Bible class, church-school departments, and vesper services. Special features on Sunday evenings has brought about a noticeable increase in attendance at those services. The assembly program at Central Auditorium has received most favorable comment.

Lakeside continues to forge to the front as a summering place for religious assemblies and conferences of other denominations as well as Methodist. The summer season opened with the Youth Training Council of the North-East Ohio Conference, followed by the Youth Conference of North America, with an attendance of over 900 young people from almost every state in the Union. Then came, in consecutive weeks, the Sandusky Conference United Brethren Young People's Assembly, Ohio Christian Youth Conference, Disciples Ministers' Institute, Lutheran Chautauqua, United Lutheran Summer School, National United Brethren Youth Congress, three great Epworth League Institutes, and International Lyceum Association convention.

Institutes, and International Lyceum Association convention.

Next year, in addition to most of the above, Lakeside will be host to the National Youth Conference of the Evangelical-Reformed Church. Typical of the attitude of the leaders of other denominations, is the following, taken from a letter from the director of the National United Brethren Conference: "I appreciate all you did to make our United Brethren Youth Congress a success. Delegates were enthusiastic in the setting and equipment at Lakeside and in the courteous, hospitable treatment accorded them by yourself and your colleagues. You have a fine, high-class, smooth-running organization which expresses the Christian spirit in its business relationships in a splendid way."

Lakeside believes in youth and welcomes these great youth groups to her grounds. This service to the youth of today is the best insurance for the future of Lakeside.

Under competent leaders, the usual strong recreation program was carried through, the aim being to provide recreation for everyone, from the youngest child to those of advanced years. Many who do not or cannot participate in the games and sports witnessed the competition of others in the tournaments presented through the season, including those in shuffleboard, horseshoes, Junior and Senior Northern Ohio Tennis Championships, national roque, and Lakeside is more than a place. It is an ideal that lives in the hearts of countless thousands of people in all parts of our land. So long as it continues to minister to the moral, spiritual, and physical uplift of its patrons, it will become increasingly recognized as one of the great summer institutions of the country.

THE ELIZABETH GAMBLE DEACONESS HOME

The Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home Association has ten deaconesses and one associate deaconess, nine of whom are regularly employed by The Christ Hospital.

During the year Union Church, located in the basin of the city with one of the deaconesses (Miss F. Fern Fulmer) in charge, was merged with York Street Church, and Miss Fulmer became the superintendent of the Junior Department. Most of the work and organizations of Union Church were automatically absorbed into the regular activities of York Street. A teacher training and music class were added.

The neighborhood work is being continued on Wesley Avenue. During the year

50 children have been enrolled in the kindergarten. 15 adults have attended the Americanization class.

40 mothers have attended Mothers' Club.

400 calls have been made.

200 books have been circulated.

5,000 children have enjoyed the playground.

15 have attended a knitting class.

Money and clothes have been distributed to the needy.

On September 2, 1936, Miss Carra Holmes Close passed away at the Christ Hospital after an illness of more than three years. Miss Close was the oldest member of the Deaconess Home and had given the greatest number of years of service ever given to the Elizabeth Gamble Deaconess Home Association by a deaconess. She entered the work in 1890 when Isabella Thoburn was superintendent. Most of her service was given to industrial and freshair work. She was always an outstanding personality and a tireless worker and she will be greatly missed. Those who knew and loved her thank God for her long years of beautiful service but rejoice that she has been released from her suffering her suffering.

BERTHA E. BEECHER, Superintendent.

WORLD SERVICE IN OUR LOCAL CHURCHES Ohio Conference, 1936-37

The Million Unit Fellowship should result in strengthening the whole line of our World Service ministry. But before this new movement can register there is danger that our mission boards will have to close down some more of their work, since they do not dare incur any more indebtedness through borrowing from the banks. We must, therefore, do everything we can to bring all possible World Service money into the treasury by Missionary Sunday, October 18.

II. The Million Unit Fellowship Movement—

1. Immediately following Conference, the pastor talks the plan over with: a. The chairman of his World Service Council;

b. The entire World Service Council, which should make recommendation for favorable action, including certain next steps, to the official board or Quarterly Conference. (Place on this council as members-at-large some of the strongest men of your church. Make this special, and get their consent to serve.)

c. The official board. Possibly the first statement to the board should be made by the chairman of the World Service Council, who should present to the Board the recommendations of his council. The action of the official board or Quarterly Conference then becomes the authorization for the pastor to take the matter before the congregation on;

November 15. On this date every pastor should preach upon the Million Unit Fellowship Movement: what it is and why, its spiritual significance, and financial objectives. On that afternoon there will also be a nation-wide broadcast concerning the movement by the Board of Bishops meeting in Scranton, Pa.

3. On several following Sundays use minutemen, who may take from three to five minutes to tell the congregation about some phase of our missionary, educational or other World Service ministry which is important and needs aid through the Million Unit Fellowship Movement. Write to our different board offices for helpful literature for the purpose.

4. On December 7, circularize your congregation with one or two pieces of informational literature concerning this movement launched by the last General Conference. Get the literature from Bishop Smith's office, and see that by mail or personal delivery every family in your membership receives copies. Repeat such a circularization with other materials about February 1.

5. January 3, general exchange of pulpits in every district, under supervision of the District Superintendents and their helpers, with sermons on the Million Unit Fellowship Movement, and the forthcoming every-member canvass for it.

6. Pastor and World Service Council make final preparations for the above-mentioned canvass: securing pledge cards, making constituency list, holding coaching conference with those chosen to do the canvassing, etc.

7. The pastor meets with the officers and teachers of the church school, giving them full information concerning the movement and arranging for cooperation in the enlistment of classes or departments in pledging the support of one or more units.

- 8. By February 10, if not before, launch the intensive canvass to reach every member and solicit subscriptions for one or more units. A special message from Bishop Smith for the congregation on the preceding Sunday. The canvass to be completed in three days, with stragglers to be reached finally within a week. Results to be reported then without delay to the District Superintendent, who will report the result from the churches of his district to the
- 9. On February 15, a celebration dinner for the entire church with reports of the success of the effort in your church, inspirational addresses, etc. Possibly nation-wide radio hookup.

Added Suggestions

Here are three added suggestions which might be found greatly worth while but which are not included in the nine points of our proposed regular Conference program:

1. This might be an alternative to Number 9 above, or both might be done. Use a general church dinner, with special program, addresses, statement of plans for the church, and joyous good fellowship, as a means for final launching of the every member enlistment canvass.

2. Conversations on the work of God. This is a term borrowed from the Moravians. Do our people really understand what the church is for in the One resourceful pastor invites a dozen or more of his members at a time to his parsonage (the smaller the number the better, he thinks) and talks over with them intimately and personally the work of the church, the why of it, its problems in that parish, its objectives and needs, etc. He continues this throughout the year, until he has thus reached his entire membership. The results are most gratifying. Would this idea help you in your Million Unit Fellowship plane? lowship plans?

3. On the Sunday when you first preach on the Million Unit Fellowship Movement, November 15, give the occasion a masculine emphasis. Make it "Men's Sunday," with the men sitting in the center section of the auditorium. Organize a special effort to get all your men there. It will need careful planning and effort.

Memoirs

NATHANIEL ELTON BUTLER

Nathaniel Elton Butler, son of Charles A. and Rebecca Geer Butler, was born in Corsica, Jefferson County, Pa., and departed this life at his home in Columbus, Ohio, March 28, 1936, at the age of fifty-six years and nine months. At the beginning of his school life his family moved to Clarion, Pa., where he attended school until the end of his freshman year in high school. He then went into a glass factory where he worked for several years helping to support his family until the death of his mother. His conversion and call to the ministry was very definite, then began years of preparation which took him through Genesee Wesleyan Seminary at Lima, New York; Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, and Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill. In 1920 Ohio Wesleyan conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He was admitted into the Ohio Conference while a student at Ohio Wesleyan University, and served student charges during his college and seminary days. After seminary he was appointed to Somerset, Ohio, then to Franklin Park, Columbus; Trinity, Portsmouth; First, Lancaster; Raper, Dayton; Grace, Lima; Trinity, Chillicothe, retiring from there in 1934 because of ill health. His recovery seemed certain and he was supplying McKendree at the time of his death.

August 17, 1910, he was united in marriage to Olive May Ballard, who with five children—Elanor, Ruth, Robert, Grace, and Richard—survive. Funeral services were conducted at Third Avenue Church, Columbus; interment at Central College, Ohio.

tral College, Ohio.

Nathaniel Butler was a good preacher of the gospel of Christ. He was mentally alert and spiritually sound. His life had many hardships, he faced difficult situations like a good soldier of Christ. He had an optimistic outlook. He lived victoriously, he has won his crown.

FINLEY R. CROOKS

The Rev. Finley R. Crooks, retired member of the Ohio Conference, died October 29, at the age of eighty-one years. Mr. Crooks was admitted to the Conference in 1880, and preached continuously for forty-two years. He served the following churches: Plain City, Pomeroy, Glouster, Bainbridge, Ashville, Marietta, Baltimore, and others. In April, 1880, he married Alice J. Lake, at White Cottage, Ohio, the place of his birth. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in April, 1930, at their home in Baltimore. Mr. Crooks is survived by his widow, two sons, and two daughters. Funeral services were held in the church, under the direction of the pastor, C. J. Yeisley, assisted by Dr. J. C. Arbuckle. Interment was in Wesley Chapel Cemetery, White Cottage, Ohio.

EUGENE S. GADDIS

The Rev. Eugene S. Gaddis, who had been in failing health for several years, passed away at the Battle Creek Sanitarium, Battle Creek, Mich., November 26, at the age of seventy-three. He was a native of Dayton, Ohio, and a son of the Rev. Maxwell P. Gaddis, an associate pastor of the Rev. E. W. Sehon at Wesley Chapel in 1839 and 1840. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the old Cincinnati Conference, and was appointed pastor of the Cleves Church. Later he was pastor at Price Hill, Pendleton, St. John's Toledo, then at Mason, Loveland, Conference evangelist, Asbury, and York Street (Cincinnati), financial field agent of Arizona Deaconess Hospital, a missionary in Arizona, and was granted a supernumerary relation by his Conference in 1921. He leaves a sister, Miss Lucretia Gaddis. The funeral service was held in the chapel of Woodlawn Cemetery, Dayton, Ohio, Friday, November 29, in charge of the Rev. H. G. Werner, pastor of Grace Church, assisted by the Rev. Gervaise Roughton and the Rev. V. F. Brown. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery. The Rev. Eugene S. Gaddis, who had been in failing health for several years,

ADAM JAMES HAWK

The Rev. Adam James Hawk was born in Pike County, Ohio, January 8, 1858,

The Rev. Adam James Hawk was born in Pike County, Ohio, January 8, 1858, and died in Newark, Ohio, October 19, 1935.

He attended the public schools of his native county and was graduated from Ohio University in the class of '79. His Alma Mater gave him the degree of Master of Arts in 1882, and of Doctor of Divinity in 1904. In 1870, at a campmeeting, he was converted, and while yet a boy in preparatory school, he was called to preach. For three years after his graduation from Ohio University he taught in the public schools. In 1882 he was received On Trial in the Ohio Annual Conference. He served with notable success the following charges: Burlington, Chesterhill, Syracuse, Johnstown, Wellston, Gift Street, Columbus; Central, Zanesville; Gallipolis; Gillman Avenue, Marietta; Presiding Elder and Superintendent of Gallipolis District; Trinity, Chillicothe; Granville; New Lexington; Wellston, second pastorate; Neal Avenue, Newark. His ministry was distinctly evangelistic and the number of converts ran into the thousands. In the General Conference of 1908 he headed the Ohio Conference delegation. He the General Conference of 1908 he headed the Ohio Conference delegation. He served as Secretary of the Conference for four years.

On March 31, 1882, he was united in marriage with Miss Anna Gertrude Thomas in Lucasville, Ohio. There were six children born to this union, Lucille Hawk Thaxton, Gertrude, Ruth Evelyn, John Paul, Arthur James, Warwick Thomas. The children all survive the father, the wife and mother having preceded Dr. Hawk to the "Saint Everlasting Rest" some six years ago.

J. W. HICKMAN

The Rev. J. W. Hickman, retired member of the Ohio Conference, passed away at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hughes, Menhattan, Kan., on the morning of August 27, 1936. Born in 1850, he had attained the age of eighty-six years and four months.

The influence of a positively Christian home inclined him toward a Christian life, and when eighteen years of age he definitely committed himself to God and the work of the Kingdom. Three years later he entered, and in 1875 graduated from what was then Scio College, now Mt. Union College.

In 1880 he united with the Minnesota Conference, the interval between graduation and uniting with the Conference having been spent in teaching in an academy in Tennessee. In 1882 he was transferred to the Central Ohio Conference, and when the Cincinnati Conference was formed found himself a member of the new Conference

He was married in 1880 to Miss Carrie M. Elliott, of Quaker City, Ohio, who survives him. He is survived also by two sons, Warren E. Hickman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Charles M. Hickman, of Coshocton, Ohio, and one daughter, Mrs.

J. S. Hughes, of Manhattan, Kan.

His work in the ministry was definitely evangelistic and revivals marked his ministry. It was in such a campaign on his own charge characterized by deep conviction and consequent surrender on the part of many that he was stricken with a throat affliction from which he never fully recovered, and which made public address of any kind impossible.

Feeble in health for the past few years, his interest in the church and the widespread kingdom of God never diminished With a clear mind and confident faith he finished his course, giving every evidence that with him it was light at evening time. Burial was held in Manhattan, Kan.

CHARLES A. HUGHES

The Rev. Charles A. Hughes was born in Gallia County, Ohio, October 1, 1865, and died of pneumonia at Jane Case Hospital in Delaware, Ohio, November 28, 1935. He left to mourn his loss his widow, Anna Gooding Hughes, and four sons and two daughters. One of these sons, Dr. Everett C. Hughes, is a member of the faculty of McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

The first church work of Bro. Hughes was conducting the Spiritual Department of one of the first chapters of the Epworth League that was organized, Number 18. He made it a success from the beginning, and this work led him toward the ministry, which he entered as a Supply in 1895. In 1896 he was admitted On Trial into the Ohio Conference, and in 1899 he was transferred into the North Dakota Conference. In 1902 he matriculated as a student in Ohio Wesleyan University, from which he was graduated in 1904. He was at once transferred back into the Ohio Conference, and continued to serve as pastor therein until 1934, when he superannuated at the age of sixty-nine years. He served the following charges in the Ohio Conference: Beaver, Perryton, Corning, Good Hope, Clarksburg, Groveport, Baltimore, New Boston, Lewis Center, Oak Hill, Pine Street (Ironton), Mt. Perry, Larue, and Prospect.

After he began to preach two brothers soon followed him into the Ohio Conference, the Rev. George G. Hughes and the Rev. Alfred F. Hughes, the latter of whom became the first President of the Evansville College in Indiana and continued in that canacity for many years continued in that capacity for many years.

From childhood Bro. Hughes was diligently taught the Holy Scriptures in which later he became an unusually proficient and appreciative student, acquiring his knowledge at first hand from the Bible itself. Professor Rollin H. Walker said of him that he was one of the best Bible students he ever had in his classes.

He was a lifelong reader of "The Christian Advocate" (Cincinnati Edition).

Bro. Hughes was an able, zealous, fearless, uncompromising, scriptural preacher. Nothing could swerve him from following his convictions of the truth, and he lived the religion he preached to others.

He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.

PAUL E. KEMPER

Paul E. Kemper, sixty-one years of age, and a member of the Ohio Conference since 1907, died Sunday morning, August 2, 1936, at his home in Hebron. This church sent Mr. and 'Mrs. Kemper to Florida this past winter for two months. The funeral service was held in the Hebron Church on Tuesday, August 4, with Donald Timerman, Superintendent of the Zanesville District, and E. R. Stafford, former Superin-tendent, in charge. PAUL E. KEMPER

WALTER W. KENT

Walter W. Kent was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on August 21, 1868, the youngest son of Luke Kent, who was Cincinnati's first jeweler. In his early youth he attended the public schools of Cincinnati; Bethany College, Va.; Taylor University, and finally Oskaloosa College in Iowa, from which school he received his B.D. and D.D. degrees. He held appointments in Malden, W. Va., and Anderson, Ind, where he was instrumental in erecting a new church. In order to be near an elderly sister, he requested to be transferred to the West Ohio Conference, and in that Conference he held appointments at the Delta Avenue Church in Cincinnati, the Linwood Church, Sharonville and Glendale, and the Pleasant Ridge Church in Cincinnati. While pastor of the Ohmer Park Church, in Dayton, his eyesight began to fail. In an attempt to conserve his sight he moved to Florida, but in 1926, totally blind, he returned to the home of the sister in Cincinnati. From 1927 to 1932, in his blindness, he preached from the Cincinnati Gospel Wagon. Walter Kent considered his blindness a blessing, and was beloved by all who knew him for his happy and optimistic disposition. Mr. Kent was a widower, having buried his wife in 1912, and he is survived by the sister, whom he came to assist in his later years.

He was ninety-three years of age, and was the oldest member of the Conference, having joined the old Ohio Conference in 1865. He served the Gallipolis circuit. In 1869 he transferred to the Cincinnati Conference and served Clarksville, Bowersville, Georgetown, Laurel, Centenary, Manchester, Aberdeen, Moscow, and in 1882 took the Supernumerary Relation, and in 1887 the Retired.

He was buried from the Home Chapel in College Hill.

EDWARD JAY MOORE

The world has its numerous and varied aristocracies. Most of them are not worthy of the name. There is but one real and genuine aristocracy. It is made up of those who are lofty in mind, deep in soul, and Christlike in character. Our deceased comrade and brother—Edward Jay Moore—belonged to this aristocracy, and his place was among the topmost.

In his youth and earlier life he sought and acquired the best educational equipment and general preparation. In order he received in cursu the degrees of A.B., A.M., Ph.D., and the honorary degree of D.D. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in the states of Ohio and Missouri. His father was a minister, and at the age of twenty-five the son was ordained for the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He held pastorates in the state of Washington, and from 1894 to 1901 in Cleveland. It was in the year of 1901 that he began his work in the Anti-Saloon League and continued for thirty years, retiring in 1931. He served in several important fields, and was an effective and distinguished officer and leader. As Superintendent of the Cincinnati District, Assistant State Superintendent in Ohio, State Superintendent in Missouri, from that to State Superintendent in Pennsylvania. From 1916 to 1925 he was Assistant General Superintendent of the National League of America. In 1925 he was made Superintendent of the League in Ohio, in which position he continued until his patingment in 1921 tinued until his retirement in 1931.

Not long ago he told me of the romance of his college days. He met a young woman, Miss Lu Crippen by name, of Scranton, Pa. Admiration was instant, and admiration soon deepened into a deathless and consuming affection, and in January, 1884, she became his bride. Nearly fifty-two years of life came and went before his translation, and through them all he continued to be not only the conventional true and devoted husband, but the chivalrous and knightly gentleman for every occasion and every courteous consideration to her, whom he had promised to "love, honor, comfort, and keep."

To them four children were born—Blanche L., Minnie E., Edward G., and Florence E. The three daughters survive him, but the son died in early life.

No children ever had benefit of a more noble and affectionate father.

It was a fortunate day for the Anti-Saloon League and for all that the League stood for, when Dr. Moore decided that his duty was to enter its ranks and give his time, strength, and talents to the great contest against the demon of strong drink.

For leadership and service in such positions as marked Dr. Moore's career many qualifications were required. First of all, as just indicated, there must be the deep moral conviction, rooted and grounded, and coupled with daring courage and relentless persistence.

Then he was a most capable executive and administrator. He was awake to every need and situation for which he had any responsibility, and his watch-words appeared to be faithfulness and efficiency.

He was wise and discerning, as well as strong and good. While there was no lack in him being as harmless as the doves, neither did he fall behind the serpents in wisdom. In the legislative battles he fought the wily politicians and wet lobbyists found him more than a match for themselves, and the Haman's gallows prepared for him, when put to use, saw them dangling at the ends of the ropes.

And this alertness constituted him a most competent and judicious adviser in the ranks of Anti-Saloon League leaders.

Another qualifying trait of his was his magnaminity and sense of brother-hood. His powers of leadership were accentuated because those who worked over him, or under him, or beside him, were well aware that his heart was as dominant as his brain.

His platform and pulpit ability was marked. But when I place Dr. E. J. Moore amid this galaxy of the renowned and strong speakers, as Gough, and Stuart, and Frances Willard, he does not suffer by the comparison. It was always a privilege to hear him speak

For these and other equally important reasons this man, now fallen asleep, was able to make a very large and unusual contribution to that long and sustained conflict that ultimated in the most splendid legislative enactment for moral and civic welfare that the civilized world has ever known—I mean the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and he and his co-workers that brought the issue to its culmination shall deserve memorializing in this nation of ours for all the years to come. For though the amendment has been despised, misrepresented, repealed by the low-brows and the politicians, and the greed for wealth, and the silly women led astray unawares—so that the entire nation has been hurtled back into an insane and destroying debauch—these men that gave their lives have not died in vain, and the works they have performed shall not perish from the earth formed shall not perish from the earth.

In his Christian character Dr. Moore was a man of strong and simple faith. His daily life showed forth the religion he avowed. His long and serious illness revealed not only his natural stamina and bravery, but the sweet reasonableness of his entire being saturated with the love of God and the mind of his Christ. During all these months he carried on courageously, hopefully, and with quiet resignation.

In his latest years Bishop Fowler, in his famous lecture on Lincoln, used to say this, "When I enter the shadows, which in the nature of the case cannot be far away, I humbly hope, first of all, the see the King in His beauty, then if I behold in that vast throng the stately form of Abraham Lincoln I shall know I am in the right place." I can use and adapt these words with regard to this friend and comrade and say "that if in that vast throng I shall behold the manly form and the smiling face of Edward Jay Moore I shall know I am in the right place.'

Shall we not say to these nearest, dearest ones of his heart's graspings what

James Whitcomb Riley wrote:

"I cannot say, I will not say That he is dead. He is just away."

And shall we not go further and say to them that as of yore he still looks tenderly and affectionately toward them and with deepest interest in their welfare, for as Markham puts it—

"Love will outwatch the stars and light the skies When the last star falls and silent dark devours."

JEREMIAH C. SINCLAIR

The Rev. J. C. SinClair, son of Frank and Alvira SinClair, was born at Woodsfield, Ohio, February 10, 1861. He died at Kenton, Ohio, December 18, 1935, aged seventy-four years.

He was married on April 21, 1883, to Miss Mafie T. Pfaff, of Berea, Ohio. They met and prepared for their life work at German Wallace College, afterwards known as Baldwin-Wallace College. To this union were born three sons, Carl Alfred, of Marion; Irving McDonald, of Cleveland, and Clayton Frederick, of Lima.

For forty years he was a good minister of Christ. He held churches in the following Conferences: Oregon, Puget Sound, Central German, and Central Ohio. He retired in 1923, but continued to preach two years more. For twenty-three years they have made their home in Kenton. Besides the widow and the sons mentioned above, he is survived by a grandson, Philip Alfred SinClair.

For the past ten years he has been the beloved teacher of the Men's Class in First Church, Kenton. From this church he was buried on December 20, Thomas B. Roberts, the pastor conducting the services.

Thomas B. Roberts, the pastor, conducting the services. Assisting him was S.

M. Weems, President of the Kenton Ministerial Association. Through a long and significant career he had stood like a stalwart cedar of his adopted Oregon. His passing was in quietness and confidence.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER SCHRUFF

The Rev. William Alexander Schruff was born in Louisville, Ky., July 11, 1858, and went home to be with God on December 16, 1935, at Scarlet Oaks, Cincinnati, Ohio. He was one of the outstanding pastors of the former Central German Conference. Reared in a fine Christian home, endowed with a keen intellect and a love for knowledge, he became one of the best-read men of his day. Never a day dawned that did not see some book finished or one begun. In the year 1879 he graduated from German Wallace College, and two years later from Nast Theological Seminary. He loved to travel. He visited Europe several times.

On May 6, 1885, he married Miss Minnie Scheffel, of Louisville, Ky. fifty-one years she shared with him the joys and hardships of a minister's life.

During his prolonged illness she tenderly ministered unto him.

During the forty-eight years of his active ministry the Rev. Schruff served the following churches: Greenville, Ohio; Madison, Ind; Chillicothe, Pomeroy, Portsmouth; New Albany, Ind.; Cincinnati (Auburn Avenue); Columbus (Gates-Fouth); Indianapolis (Prospect Street); Seymour; Louisville (Breckenridge), and Marietta, Ohio. For seventeen years he was the efficient Secretary of the Central German Conference.

Failing health in 1929 forced him to take the Retired Relation, and he and his good wife entered the Bethesda Home for the Aged in Cincinnati. They were privileged to spend six happy years together at this beautiful haven of rest. The final summons came after a period of prolonged and intense suffering on the morning of December 16.

The funeral services were held at the Auburn Avenue Church in charge of the pastor, K. W. Scheufler. E. I. Klotz, pastor of Livingston Church, Columbus, made an address, in which he fittingly characterized the spirit and work of this radiant personality. Burial took place in beautiful Cavehill Cemetery in Louisville, Ky.

CURTIS W. SMITH

Curtis W. Smith was a son of A. E. and Phoebe Glass Smith. Born at Chandlersville, Ohio, November 22, 1866, he had almost reached his sixty-ninth birthday anniversary when, on October 2, 1935, death followed a serious illness, which began September 4 from a cerebral hemorrhage.

He attended the schools of Chandlersville, after which he attended Scio College, from which he was graduated. He received his theological training at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., where he was graduated from the theological school, and was afterwards ordained into the ministry.

He served churches of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Ohio for thirtyseven years, having held pastorates of churches at Poland, Chagrin Falls, Newcomerstown, St. Clairsville, Ashtabula, Conneaut, Salem, Bucyrus, Wayne Avenue (Cincinnati); Gallipolis, and London.

Mr. Smith was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity at Mt. Union College in 1912. He had scholarly attainments that made him prominent in the Methodist Episcopal denomination, and he had a fine personality that was reflected in his always courteous Christian contacts with his fellow men.

He retired from the ministry in 1929 after completing a successful pastorate at London, Ohio. He spent two years in Florida for the benefit of his health, and came from there to Williamstown, W. Va., where he and Mrs. Smith had close associates and relatives, and where they made a wide circle of friends.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Floe Traugh Smith, with whom he was united in marriage at Salem, W. Va.; a son, Dr. Vincent Smith, a prominent physician and surgeon, of Ironton, Ohio; two grandsons, Daniel and James Smith. One son, Paul Smith, died in infancy.

The funeral services were held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church

Curtis W. Smith's earthly career is over, but how fine it is that the influence of his good life of service still goes on!

WILLIAM W. TROUT

This honored retired member of the Ohio Conference died in Cleveland, June 13, 1935. The funeral service was conducted by Paul I. Wachs, Donald Tippett, and L. W. During forty-six years' of efficient ministry he served as pastor of fourteen churches. He retired in 1930. He was known as a soul winner, and as a preacher of simplicity and power. Gates Trout, of Columbus, and James R. Trout, of Marietta. Trout, of Marietta.

PEARL CRAWFORD BOWMAN

In the words of Bishop Quayle we would say, "Pearl Crawford Bowman has changed her place of residence; she now dwells in the new Jerusalem, city of our God." She went to her new home on the twenty-sixth day of March, 1936.

"And left us wondering how very fair It needs must be since she tarries there."

Mrs. Bowman was an educator in the real sense of the word, and for a number of years was the Supervisor of Primary Education in the schools of Ironton, Ohio, her home city.

She came to Cincinnati as a bride in May, 1934, and very soon made a large place for herself, not only in the hearts of the members and friends of First Church, Norwood, but she was beloved throughout Cincinnati District. Her many talents were used generously in Kingdom tasks.

Death took her after an emergency operation at Christ Hospital, but her beautiful life is not ended; having served here, she continues to serve there.

"No, not cold beneath the grasses, Not close walled within the tomb; Rather in my Father's mansion Busy in another room."

MARY EMMA HAWK

"Dr. Lewis was first of all a Christian gentleman, he was this in every respect. His character was thoroughly grounded in Christian culture and a knowledge of those developments that have made the church a conservatively progressive institution. As a scholar he was keen, mature, balanced, and thorough. As a thinker he was always progressive with a mind nicely analytical yet synthesizing and integrative. A true teacher possessed by the truth and teachings as one convinced of its power and therefore enthusiastic. As a friend to students and co-workers he was loyal, sympathetic, appreciative, and unassuming

"We of the faculty and student body will miss for many a day and many a year this wise, penetrating, cultured, Christian gentleman. There is an open place against our sky for one who lived and died a philosopher, a balanced gentleman, always a Greek, always a Christian. We regret that he walks our campus no more.

"To his family, which was his chief joy, he leaves the priceless heritage of a good name, enriched by hallowed memories, and made finer by the life of the gentleman who bore it."

VIII Historical

In the latter part of the eighteenth century Methodism penetrated the regions west of the Allegheny Mountains. The Western Conference, covering work in Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee, was organized and held its first session October 6, 1800. The work north of the Ohio River was organized as a separate Conference in 1812, called the Ohio Conference, which held its first session October 1, 1812. A portion of Ohio Methodism has ever since retained that name. In 1840 the north half of the State, except its eastern part, became a separate body called the North Ohio Conference, the Ohio Conference retaining the southern half. In 1852 the west half of what was then the Ohio Conference became a separate Conference, known as the Cincinnati Conference. In 1856 the west half of the North Ohio Conference was organized into the Central Ohio Conference. In 1913 the Central Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences were merged, the new body being called the West Ohio Conference. In 1928 the Ohio and West Ohio Conferences surrendered their charters to become a new body to be known as the Ohio Annual Conference, thus becoming the successor to the former Central Ohio, Cincinnati, and Ohio Conferences. The names and record of members of former conferences will be found in Year Book, 1931, p. 965. In 1933 Central German Conference members living in bounds of Ohio Conference became members of Ohio Conference.

The student in BOSTON UNIVERSITY is more than simply "another college student."

He is a student in the largest institution of higher learning in New England, and in one of the greatest universities in the world, measured in terms of scholarly worth, serviceableness and product.

He has the opportunity of fellowship with the best of his contemporaries.

He studies under professors who have received advanced degrees from some two hundred colleges and universities in Europe and America, writers of books used in many other institutions, and distinguished scholars, more than eighty of whom are listed in "Who's Who in America."

His study at the center of Boston keeps him close to real life and gives him also the cultural values of "The Athens of America" with its rich treasures in art, its vast library facilities, its numerous historic and patriotic shrines, its homes and haunts of poets and philosophers.

He enters, upon graduation, into fellowship with as distinguished a group of alumni as can be found anywhere.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY has five undergraduate Colleges and six graduate Schools.

. . A Door to Security

Security in old age—this is the universal problem.

Through the Methodist Home for the Aged our Church is bringing security to many of those who need it most.

The Methodist Home for the Aged provides constantly for a family of about one hundred and thirty worthy aged men and women. This service has been carried on for thirty-seven years.

Comfortable rooms, good food, kind friends, loving care, religious services, and social activities—all help to bring contentment and happiness to these aged guests.

This cause is worthy of your most prayerful and kindly consideration. Gifts, annuities, and bequests are earnestly desired.

EVER was the church college more needed than now. As Protestants we all believe in the separation of church and state; and yet we pay a price for that separation. It means keeping education and religion apart.

- ✓ In tax-supported schools, from the first grade all the way through college, education and religion are not vitally or essentially related to each other. Even the instruction in the home and the home church do not compensate for this unfortunate separation.
- ✓ In the church college, education and religion are brought together naturally and vitally. That is its essential purpose, and never was such cooperation more needed than now.
- → OHIO WESLEYAN has such a purpose; it is a church institution on which church members may depend.

CHARACTER BUILDING SINCE 1842

THE METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME ASSOCIATION OF OHIO

Worthington, Ohio

CHILDREN SERVED. During the year closing May 31st, 248 children were under the supervision and care of the Home. Of this number 161 were residents in the Home, and 87 were in Foster Homes. The total days care given the children in the Home were 33,144. Eighty-six families were involved. The family situations from which the children came were as follows: 60 children, mother dead; 27 children, father dead; 10 children, orphans; 10 children, improper homes; 31 children, parents separated; 11 children, mother unmarried; 12 children, father or mother in hospital. Seventeen children in Foster Homes were adopted.

A CHARITABLE SERVICE. These children came not only from broken homes, but from poverty. Only 7.8% of the total income is collected from parents or guardians of the children. The balance comes as a distinct charity from the Churches. So the management is as dependent on the charity of the Church as the children are upon the Home.

This ministry to God's "little ones" must be continued
